WHO WE ARE

We are a team of international experts with extensive experience in Business, Non-profit Organizations, Non-Government Organizations and in working with Communities and the Public Sector.

OUR STORY

In 2012, at the UN summit in Rio one of the issues highlighted was the need for more partnering initiatives to create sustainable change.

A group of colleagues involved in a range of sectors from around the world then discussed how they could share their knowledge and experience of partnering for change. The outcome of these discussions was the creation of Out of the Box.
